

Adrian Pym FCA MAE QDR(ED)

Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW)

Member of the Academy of Experts

Accredited Mediator

Academy of Experts qualified Expert Determiner

Profile

I have over twenty years experience in investigations, expert witness services and valuation of businesses. I have acted as advisor, party appointed expert, single joint expert, expert determiner and mediator. I am on the ICAEW Presidents Appointments Panel for dispute resolution cases and I have given oral evidence in Court.

I have lectured to solicitors, barristers and accountants on forensic accounting topics and I have been engaged as a guest lecturer for a leading legal professional training company.

I was a guest speaker at the Family Law Bar Association National Conference in October 2016.

Experience and Skills

I trained and qualified with a national firm of Chartered Accountants, gaining a range of experience in terms of industry sector, client size, structure and complexity. I used this experience when moving into Forensic Accounting.

I have an analytical approach to investigation work; clear and succinct report writing skills and a balanced commercial approach to dispute resolution.

Over the past twenty years I have undertaken a range of cases covering the following broad areas:

Business valuations	Partnership and shareholder disputes
Matrimonial Finance	Personal Injury and fatal accident
Loss of profit claims	Professional Negligence
Fraud	Confiscation Orders
Expert Determination	Commercial Agency Compensation

Reported Cases

Goddard-Watts v Goddard-Watts [2016] EWHC 3000 (Fam)
